Here is what we want for public servants, of-fice holders, legislators—all condensed into four lines of poetry: Experience, that's stood the test; Conscience, to say what's right; Intelligence, to know what's best; Backbone, to stand the fight.

THE RESEVE.—In the late fight between the conservatives and Radicals in this State, each party had its reserves. The reserve of the Con-servatives were the rebels—of the Radiesls, the soldiers. The rebels have voted conservative the soldiers have pretty much all voted Radical. The difference in the parties is the difference between their supporters. Missour
